High Tariff for Canada.

OTTAWA, July 29.—The House at 4 o'clock this morning divided on Sir Richard Cartwright's amendment to Foster's motion to go into committee to consider the resolutions containing tariff changes. The amendment which sets forth that it be resolved "that the government should forthwith reduce all duties on articles of prime necessity and more particularly on those most generally consumed by artisans, fishermen, miners and farmers, and further, that negotiations which the House has been informed are to be opened in Washington in October, should be conducted on the basis of the most extended reciprocal trade between Canada and the United States in manufactured as well as natural productions," was defeated. The vote stood 88 yeas to 114 nays.

A Crank Senator.

By Associated Press.

SULPHUR SPRINGS (Tex.), July 29.— Senator Pfeffer was orator at the Farmers' Encampment last night; more than 4,000 people were present to hear the Kansas Senator. He wanted the government to loan people money at 1 per cent to lift $9,000,000 of mortgages and to pull the tooth and close the mouth of the great red dragon in Wall street. He proposed to do this with flat money issued directly to the people who had to mortgage their homes. His speech lasted two hours, and he closed by saying the People's Party would finally elect the President, Congress and State, and if the Supreme Court was not with them they would have another.

Reciprocal Republics.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—An important reciprocity treaty, under the terms of the McKinley law, has been concluded with the Republic of San Domingo, through the efforts of John Foster, Special Commissioner of the United States. The terms of the treaty are very similar to those in connection with Brazil.

The new reciprocity treaty negotiating between the United States and San Domingo, under the terms of the McKinley tariff act, will be proclaimed in both countries at an early date next month. The Cuban reciprocity treaty with Spain will also be proclaimed about the same time.

Hot Wave Broken.

By Cable and Associated Press.

AUBURN (Cal.), July 29.—The hot wave that has been with us for about twenty days has broken. Yesterday the thermometer ranged from 70 to 90 degrees, or ten degrees lower than for three weeks. This morning the thermometer registered 60.

A case of food poisoning occurred at Penryn Monday. Several families were affected at the same time and one death has since occurred. It is thought to have originated from pressed corned beef and that the beef cattle had absorbed grasshopper poison.

Russia's Friendship For France.

By Cable and Associated Press.

PARIS, July 29.—The text of the Czar's telegram to President Carnot in regard to the visit of the French fleet at Cronstadt is as follows: "The presence of the fleet is fresh testimony of the profound sympathy uniting France and Russia. I have at heart to express to you my warm satisfaction on this account."

A Wells-Fargo Loss.

By Associated Press.

Houston (Tex.), July 29.—Officials of Wells-Fargo's Express Company admit that a money package is missing at Kountz, but decline to give the amount. The loss is believed to be $50,000 or more.

Sugar Shipments.

By Cable and Associated Press.

HAVANA, July 29.—The amount of sugar exported from the island from December 1, 1890, to June 30, 1891, to the United States is 3,552,000 bags, 22,480 hogsheads, making 465,121 tons.

Nevada Night Predit by Illinois.
By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Republican editors from all parts of the State took the Grand Pacific Hotel by storm yesterday. They are here in response to an invitation from the Republican State Committee, which desires to confer with the quill-drivers in the belief that the wishes and temperament of the people can be more nearly reached in this way than by any other course. The conference is unique of its kind as there is no previous record of such deference having been paid by a political State Committee to the men who make the papers. The editors will be asked to pass upon the character of the legislation of the last general assembly; how it affects their several communities; what they think of the failure to amend the compulsory education law; what the Republicans generally think of the action of their Senators and Representatives; how the rural counties regard the prospects of two candidates at large for Congress; whether or not there is any sentiment in favor of a special session of the Legislature to re-district the State, while kindred subjects of party policy and principle will be considered. The editors will also be asked to indicate if they would desire prepared articles on State and national issues, to secure harmony of expression in the Republican press of the State on vital questions.

Republicans in Council.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The National Republican Executive Committee met this afternoon. As far as can be gathered from the utterances of members the principal business is to be the determination of the time and place for the meeting of the National Republican Committee which is to fix the time and place for holding the National Convention.

Every effort is being made by Chairman Quay's fellow members to induce him to refrain from presenting his resignation to-day. If he should persist, it is said, it would raise the question as to the authority of the Executive Committee to act upon it, which it is considered desirable to avoid at present, and several members say they will ask the resignation to lie on the table until the next meeting.

The Republican National Executive Committee has been in session two hours and considered routine business only. Quay's proposed resignation has not yet been brought up. Indications are that the committee will take a recess to meet again to-night.

Died in Port.

By Cable and Associated Press.

LIVERPOOL, July 29.—It was the intention of the consignor of the new American steamer Charles Wetmore, which is the first of the new type of steamers called the "Whaleback" to cross the Atlantic, she having recently arrived at this port with grain from Duluth, Minnesota, to dispatch that vessel to-day for New York, but their plans were disarranged by the sudden death of the commander of the vessel, Captain Saunders.

It was noticed the captain did not leave his room as usual this morning, and upon investigation it was found he had died in his berth some time during the night. Consequently the steamer will be detained until a new captain is selected. Saunders is supposed to have died from heart disease incident to saving a sailor's life yesterday.

Heart Failure.

By Cable and Associated Press.

LONDON, July 29.—The sensational breach of promise case of Miss Valerie Wiedmann against Captain Robert Horace Walpole, in which plaintiff asked $100,000 damages and which has been in and out of court more than two years, resulted in a verdict of $1,500 damages. Captain Walpole took the case to the court appeals to day and that court reversed the verdict of the lower court, holding there was no corroboration of the statements that defendant promised with the terms of the contract.

Omaha Bridge.

By Associated Press.

OMAHA, July 29.—Justice Brewer this morning refused to grant the application of the Union Pacific for a supersedeas in the bridge case. This afternoon he will pass upon the application of the Rock Island to run its trains across the bridge under the present rules of the Union Pacific and will enter a decree which will probably demand immediate compliance with the terms of the contract.

Police Letter.

By Associated Press.

MANCHESTER, July 29.—The Guardian's commercial says buying is scanty, owing to the belief that prices will not be long sustained. Prices show a slight decline. The export of yarn is exceedingly dull and prices favor buyers. There is a better demand for a better quality of staples, and common is neglected. The tendency in the market is towards improvement.

Special to the GAZETTE.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—In a saloon quarrel this morning Tony Shreve and Richard Kenzel exchanged several shots. The latter was shot through the leg and Shreve was probably fatally wounded.

Shreve, whose real name is Schrage had just returned with Kenzel from an extended camping tour in Mendocino county and were presumed to be the closest friends. He says: "I was with the bar-keeper, whose name I do not know, on California street; when Kenzel came up and deliberately knocked me down and beat me. Shortly after I was in the saloon, when Kenzel suddenly threw the door open, and drawing a pistol, shot me in the side, saying with an oath: 'Take that; you have been talking about me.' I had a pistol, but didn't have time to draw it, and if Kenzel is shot he shot himself."

Mourning at St. Mandé.

By Cable and Associated Press.

PARIS, July 29.—Crowds of people estimated at 25,000 gathered this afternoon at St. Mandé to witness the funeral of the victims of the railroad disaster of Sunday. The crowds were so great that it required the presence of the prefect of the Department of the Seine and a strong detachment of troops to keep the route of the funeral procession clear. There were 24 hearses in line, and from the Town Hall to the cemetery thousands of mourners followed the bodies to the grave. All the houses of St. Mandé were draped with crepe emblems, half-masted flags and other signs of general mourning. The air was filled with the wailing and crying of relatives and friends of the dead, many women reaching such a pitch of excitement that they went into hysterics, while others fainted.

Chicago "Times" Controversy.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Judge Blodgett in the Federal District Court this morning rendered a decision in the case of Herman C. Hufkamp and others, constituting the present management of the Chicago Times newspaper against J. J. West, the former proprietor and West's cross bill in the same suit. The decision is a crushing defeat for West. The suit was brought by Hufkamp for the purpose of invalidating 5,000 shares of stock held by West, which they claim were a fraudulent over-issue and which if held valid would give West control of the paper. The Court held the 5,000 shares invalid and that they should be cancelled, and dismissed West's cross bill. The Court held that West's conduct in the purchase of the Times was fraudulent.

Collected Enough.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Collector Joel B. Erhardt this morning announced he had tendered his resignation as collector of the port of New York. The collector refused to give any reasons for his action. His resignation is to take effect August 1st. The resignation has been in the hands of the President several weeks, but he has taken no action on it.

Building Collapsed.

By Associated Press.

By Associated Press.

Pulled the Governor's Nose.

By Associated Press.

MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.), July 29.—General John W. Foster left here this morning for Washington. During his stay he was the guest of the President and the gentlemen were busy the entire time conferring, regarding the reciprocity treaty being negotiated with various countries. No confirmations of the reported signing of the reciprocity agreement between the United States and San Domingo on June fourth could be obtained here. The President, this morning, acted upon several pardon cases, one of which was that of Captain George J. Armes.

The occurrence which led to his trial by court-martial of Armes, created considerable comment at the time. Armes, at the inauguration of President Harrison, was a retired army officer living in Washington. On inauguration day, Armes received a fancied grievance from some Pennsylvania officials. A few evenings afterward he met Governor Beaver of Pennsylvania in the lobby of the hotel and publicly insulted him, even going so far as to pull his nose. Captain Armes was tried by court-martial for conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman, and was found guilty and sentenced to dismissal from the army. The President subsequently commuted the sentence and ordered Armes to be restricted within a limit of fifty miles of the District of Columbia for three years. Upon recommendation of the Secretary of War, the President has now commuted this sentence and Armes, in the future, can go where he pleases.

Rebels Rejoice.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The Chilean Congressional envoys emphatically deny the truth of the reports from Santiago, to the effect that thousands of the soldiers of the Congressional army at Iquique refused to leave there when ordered to Atacama because they had received the pay of soldiers of the Iquique government; they say they are volunteers; but aside from this fact, the government has plenty of money with which to pay them. Balmaceda, they affirm, sought to negotiate a loan in Europe, also in the United States, but was unsuccessful.

A CARD OF THANKS.

Credit to whom credit is due, we, the undersigned, wish in this manner to return our sincere and heartfelt thanks to Chief Fraser of the Reno Fire Department, to the members and citizens who so kindly assisted us in our hour of danger, for had it not been for the "chief" who upon his arrival at the scene of the fire took in the situation at a glance, and returned to town and ordered out the steamer and hose cart which had been ordered home by the same one, and arrived in time to save for us about two and a quarter stacks of hay, which surely would have been burned had not the "chief" come. The stacks are located directly east of the barn. The engine had not been at work over ten minutes before the wind changed to the east, and our stacks of hay were saved by the stream that was playing on the ruins of our barn. Knowing the great distance to the fire apparatus and men had to travel to render us assistance, we cannot do less than express, to those who helped us, our thanks for their timely assistance.

Yours Very Respectfully,
MR. AND MRS. ED. BATES.

OUR OUTING.

The City as Seen by a Mountain Recruit on a Flying Trip.

It seems but a step from the Sierras to the sea, that leaves the tropic isles and comes freighted with spice and incense to the Golden Gate, but our people are so wedded to the freedom of mountain life, and so averse to the conventionalities of city customs, that many allow months to pass away without a visit to the metropolis of the Pacific. True the expense of travel acts as a detriment to a great extent, but when one reflects that it was only a few years ago when it was

WAS A TOLSONE JOURNEY

By stage at an expense five times greater than now, that objection is found to be more in the nature of an excuse and the real reason is our deep seated aversion to come in contact with city conventionalities. As human nature is the same the world over, we are led to judge others by ourselves, and believe the majority will agree with our views, when in answer to the question, we said "Yes, we have been to the city once again and liked it better than ever." With this frank confession and no further apology we willingly tell our readers why. The march of progress is so rapid that one cannot keep up with the times by simply feeding the imagination and saying "Oh, yes I know just about how it looks." True, photographs and pen pictures convey an idea of looks and form, but the impressions are faulty unless the real object is presented for inspection.

CROSSING THE SIERRAS

In a Pullman is now a pleasure trip, enjoyed alike by all, whether it be the denizens of the city seeking a summer outing at the crystal lakes around the summits, or residents of the arid zone skirting away to tide water to sniff the ocean breezes and bathe the lungs in the ozone of a moisture-laden atmosphere. But as one rolls westward and onward from the crest of the mountains the scene changes rapidly and instead of the green meadows we are accustomed to, at this season in the Truckee basin, we find that California is now red and yellow, sunburned, sultry and dusty; and in general appearance the interior of the State offers about as many summer attractions as a Sand Spring salt marsh. As we reach the

DID NOT KNOW IT WAS LOADED.

An Old Saying Practically Illustrated.

How often are newspapers obliged to chronicle the death of some unfortunate victim to the shotgun crank who "didn't know it was loaded." In precisely the same idiotic manner are men and women stricken down every day by a careless remark fired from a gun loaded to the muzzle with venom and malice. How many promising lives have been wrecked, fond hopes blasted and plans of a lifetime shattered by the accidental firing of one of these so-called innocent assassins.

An intimation that a bank is unsound is whispered from A to B and before the echo of the whisper has died away the news is spread far and wide, the depositors inaugurate a run and the bank breaks, frequently followed by suicide of the banker and lasting disgrace to his innocent family. Yet when the news reaches A's ears he folds the mantle of injured innocence around his cowardly form and says "I didn't mean anything by it." He is one of those who "didn't know it was loaded."

A fair young wife and mother repulses the base advances of some would-be admirer, and he, in his dignity, confides to a friend that Mrs. G. is not all that she should be. The fatal shot is fired, the echo is repeated in the ears of the loving husband and by the time the slander has reached him it has increased in volume like a snow-ball rolling down hill, until it culminates in a family rapture, a broken hearted husband and a wife driven to self-destruction, and when the charge of the crime is laid at the door of the cowardly rake, he twists his mustache, raises his eyebrows in assumed astonishment and says "No fault of mine I assure you." He didn't know it was loaded. A lunatic asylum supplemented by a coat of tar and feathers is the best remedy for this class of idiots, and the sooner this system of treatment is inaugurated the quicker the world will be cleared of these vermin.

CROP PROSPECTS.

The Railroads Will Do a Big Business.

Railroad officials say that the crop prospects for this year cannot be overestimated. Mr. Waldo, the Traffic Manager of the M. K. & T. Railroad, says: "Over 20,000,000 bushels of wheat are being harvested in Texas this season. The crops are simply perfect, and the Missouri, Kansas & Texas expects to do the largest amount of business in the history of the road this year. Texas this fall will produce over 2,000,000 bales of cotton. The yield of small grain in Missouri, Kansas, the Territory and Texas is marvelous. I never saw such quantities. Every road in the West is now engaged in scraping up all the box cars it can. Every conceivable corner is being ransacked for transportation facilities."

HUNTING A SISTER.

A Little Boy Drowned Who Had a Sister Living in Reno.

Postmaster Kraus is in receipt of the following letter:

AT BENICIA ON THE SOLANO,

"The biggest ferry boat in the world, sir," you will be told by some old traveler who knows it all and is seeking for an opportunity to show it; and while you feel like resenting the alusion to such an old story, you will mentally refer to the fact that it is 424 feet long, transports two trains of cars at the same time and exceeds so steadily that you can barely feel the vibrations of the ponderous 4,000-horse power engines that propel it. Then follows the lively run at increased speed past the monster warehouses at Port Costa, with deep water vessels moored to their portals loading with golden grain. Grinny stevedores lounge around the dirty wharves and fly-flecked doors of the beer halls, and the dirt and squalor of city front life here greets one before the city is reached. Onward past and through

THE SULPHUR FUMES

Of Selby's smelting works, which should be duplicated at Reno and run with more profit than these; and, rattling over trestles and ditting through tunnels, skurry along the shores of the bay, with scents from the carbon fumes of the locomotive, mingled with faint odors of bilge water, and before one has grown familiar with the new scenes the air brakes are on, and travelers with satchels are tramping along the asphalt walks of the depot on the mole for the ferry gates. A few minutes hurry among the porters, a lively transfer of baggage and express, the going change and the ferry moves from the slip, and with thrashing engines and regular vibrations, moves like a privileged monarch among the shipping and across the bay.

JUST TO THE SECOND

When due, her nose enters the ferry slip, the aprons are dropped, the privileged mail is trundled off and the travelers take up the line of march. Newerry houses are building on the site of the old and the street-car tracks have been removed southward. In the noise and confusion everything looks strange, and in our anxiety to find the proper car for some lady friends, we assume a knowing air as we take the lead and realize how certainly we have failed, when, refusing "a carriage sir," we hear the hoarse whisper of a hackman, who says with a far-away look: "Gito on his land front." That settles any further assumption of city air on our part, and thereafter Uriah Heep was never so humble. After piloting the ladies we made a bee-line for the home of relatives in the western addition, and never assumed leadership afterward.

BASCOMB.

When you wake up in the morning with a bad cold, a dry throat and a yellow coating on the teeth and gums, don't imagine it was all caused by what you ate the night before. Of course everybody does that and everybody "swears off" from again eating such food. The trouble is that your liver is clogged, your kidneys are overworked and your bowels are not doing their duty. Take from three to ten of Brandreth's Pills and note the sudden and wonderful change in your system.

THE RUGGED PATH OF LIFE

If it be ill eradicated by good health, is born of half its disastrous features. Hosts of distinguished men and women have uttered regrets for a past when young, full of vigor and hope, though battling with obstacles that seemed well nigh insurmountable, their pulse beat, their veins throbbed with the glow of joyous health. Chronic invalids, would you once more feel that glow, would you—as of yore—sleep, eat, digest perfectly? Then use, with persistence, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, foremost among tonics, most reliable of vitalizing medicines. Nervousness, dyspepsia, hypochondriasis, a loss of appetite and sleep, this grand reparative of a debilitated system, quickly restores lost animal vigor speedily prevails against rheumatic and neuralgic ailments, muscular disorders, kidney troubles and the growing pains of age, successfully combated by this benign specific.

THE COUNTRY IN GENERAL.

In several eastern cities barber shops keep open all night, and where there is no Sunday law they keep open the year round.

The largest barn in the United States is about to be erected near Lexington, Ky. It will be one thousand feet long and one hundred feet wide.

CALIFORNIA's gold product has so overshadowed all other mineral productions in that state that it is rather surprising to learn that since 1873 the yield of quicksilver has reached a total value of $10,000,000.

Many years ago some careless map maker accidentally changed "Goblin City," Col., to Goldfield City on his map. The error was widely copied into other maps, and to this day one sees on some of the best maps the name of Golden City instead of Goblin City.

The one-hour verdict of a Maine court in 1869, believed to be the shortest sentence to imprisonment in a criminal case in this country, was greatly undercut by an English judge who sentenced a woman to five minutes in jail for having married a man without obtaining a divorce from a former husband. This stands now as the shortest sentence on record.

There is a curious freak of nature to be seen along the road leading from Atglen to Cochranville, Pa. Two good-sized streams of water meet at right angles on almost level ground, each having a heavy fall in reaching the point. The water of both streams meet, but neither is impeded in its course. They cross like two roads and continue in their respective beds.

FOR INVENTOR AND MECHANIC.

An electrical expert says that no light has been found that will penetrate a fog better than the old oil lamp.

Whirl-tar is one of the latest inventions or discoveries. It will not become soft under the sun's rays in any climate, and is expected to be used largely in calking the deck seams of fine yachts.

The application of the microscope to machine-shop practice, for the purpose of proving whether surfaces are true, is pronounced by experts as being the best method for obtaining accuracy thus far suggested.

A new device for signaling at sea has been successfully tested. With a machine, something like a magic lantern, letters from six to twelve feet long can be thrown on a sail at night, and made so conspicuous that they may be easily read while from the ship displaying them.

A HANDFUL of raw pig iron, weighing about five pounds, is worth five cents; it would make about sixty table-knife blades worth $15; converted into steel watch-springs, there would be about 110,000 of these little coils, which, at the rate of $1.75 a dozen, would be valued at $16,070.83.

The following plan is adopted in the Paris laboratory for testing the comparative durability of paving stones. A sample of the rock is placed upon a horizontal plate rotating around a vertical axis, and pressed against it by suitable contrivances. The wear is then compared with that of a standard material under the same conditions.

ECCENTRIC INDIVIDUALS.

A NEW YORK broker has framed sets of dinner cards over fifteen hundred in number as mementoes of the good times he has had.

An Indian man has left his wife and a good deal of property and has written from the mountains out west that he did so because his wife was too good for him.

An elderly New Yorker, whose business takes him to Europe twice a year, always makes a special contract with the steamship company that if he should die on the voyage his body is not to be buried at sea.

Miss ELLA TICE, a pretty young lady of good family, residing in Williamsbridge, N. Y., has married a negro coachman who is as dark as the spiritualistic seance. She says love may be blind, but he can see well enough to jump over the color line.

One is never too old to give up a bad habit. A lady in Ilesboro, Me., eighty-eight years old, who had used tobacco all her life, has discarded the weed this winter. She hasn't given up work, though, as she makes it a rule to knit a diaper every day, besides doing other work.

HERE is a lady who believes in "painting the town." Miss Sabra Carter, a wealthy woman of Wilmington, Mass., has agreed to give ten thousand dollars to the town, the interest of which is to be devoted to the painting of such houses as may need it, providing the owners thereof do not own dogs and belong to a temperance organization.

A GREEN tree frog in the London zoological gardens prefers wasps to other food, despite occasional stings.

INTELLIGENCE from Brasino Arsizio, in the Swiss canton of Ticino, reports that sixty meters of the high road near that place have sunk into Lake Lago.

A TORNADO near Trenton, Ga., carried off a house, leaving a sick man and his bed unharmed but shelterless. The neighbors turned out and built a temporary shanty over the couch at once.

TWO IMMENSE gum trees, which tower over a hundred feet above a little church in Guatemala, are sixty feet in circumference and have pushed the foundations of the church seven inches out of place by their strong roots.

"LARGE pieces of coal," says the Kennebec Journal, "are found after every storm at Somal Point, near Booth, and this encourages the men who are digging there for it. The life-saving crew has gathered many tons of this coal."

NATURALISTS assert that in dry, clear weather swallows fly high, because the insects which form their food are high in the air during such weather. When the weather is cloudy and damp the insects settle nearer the earth and the swallows, of course follow them.

OTTERS frequently reach a great age. The ridges or water lines on the shell indicate the number of years until they get beyond forty; then the lines are wider and indicate a period of ten years. An oyster eighty-six years old was caught in Delaware bay four years ago.

PEOPLE WHO WEAR TITLES.

THE duchess of Connaught is a colonel in the German army.

COUNT HERBERT BISMARCK recently lost $70,000 in the Nice clubs.

THE duchesse de Chartres, who is an accomplished water-color painter, designs and paints her own menus and lamp shades.

THE duke of Richmond, who has an estate of 200,000 acres in Scotland, has recently remitted 20 per cent of the year's rent, and announces that he considers it not only a duty but a pleasure to assist his tenantry.

THE emperor of Russia has lately been wearing at all outdoor functions a sumptuous mantle of the richest violet velvet, which is lined throughout with ermine and adorned with a splendid passementerie of old gold and violet.

KING CARLOS, of Portugal, is twenty-seven years old. He is a blonde, unlike the majority of his countrymen, and is a man of education and graceful bearing. He talks well, speaks French and is a clever artist in water colors.

THE earl of Lonsdale not only won his famous driving bet, in which he covered twenty miles inside the hour, but has sold the horses which he used upon the occasion, getting over $8,000 for the team which, and they not been made famous by the race, would have been dear at eighty cents on the dollar.

PRINCE FERNANDO, of Bulgaria, delights in the loveliest pair-colored clothes, which make the ladies quite rave about him. He recently ordered from Paris a costume in electric blue, lined with the softest surah over elder down, and affecting somewhat the form of a princess robe, with plentiful embroideries.

SINGULAR ACCIDENTS.

A CHICAGO man whose gloves had been cleaned with benzine struck a match to light a cigar and the glove took fire and burned his hand quite badly.

TWO YOUNG men were walking out at Morgantown, W. Va., when one of them slipped and was impaled upon a cane carried by the other and died the next day.

A KENTUCKY man who had arrived at majority offered his first vote the other day, but so great was his excitement that he fell in a heap in a dead faint and could not sit up for an hour.
